A few days ago we mentioned the arrest of a negro named Sam Rollins on suspicion of being the man who murdered his wife on Colonel Ellis's farm, twelve miles below Helena, Arkansas. Sheriff H. B. Robinson, of Phillips county, yesterday reached the city, and having identified Rollins as the man who committed the murder, carried him on board a steamer and took him back to Helena. The following is a copy of the coroner's warrant.

State of Arkansas, County of Phillips. To the Sheriff of Phillips County-Greeting: It having been found by an inquisition taken the twenty-fourth day of June, 1877, before W. S. Burnett, a justice of the peace and acting coroner in and for said county, upon viewing the body of Eliza Rollins, tha the said Eliza Rollins came to her death on the twenty-third day of June, 1877, from three or four licks on the head with an ax in the hands of her husband. Sam Rollins, you are therefore commanded to take the beforenamed Sam Rollins, wheresoever he may be ound, and bring him before the said justice of the peace or acting coroner, to be dealt with according to law Witness the hand of said justice and acting coroner, this twenty-fifth day of June, 1877

I take great pleasure in recommending to the attention of my friends and the public generally, the claims of the Mountain Spring High School, near Trinity, on the Memphis and Charleston Railroad. The salubrity of the climate, the seclusion of the locality, the conduct of the domestic department, and the qualifications of the teachers, place the school in the first rank of educational institutions.
